

Community Connections

Sometimes it is difficult to find Community Connections for a family. Many families go to work or school, and then they go home. They aren't involved in churches, clubs, or other social groups. Sometimes, finding community connections requires thinking about other domains in a family's life. Here are some domains, and examples, that could help you find connections for networking a family.

Spiritual & Faith Community

- Church members
- Minister/Pastor/Bishop/Father
- Church social services

Family & Extended Family

- Grandparents
- Aunts & uncles
- Older brothers & sisters
- Cousins
- "Aunts & uncles"

Residence & Neighborhood

- Anyone else who lives in the house
- Neighbors, friends
- Neighborhood watch

Friends

- Current friends
- Old friends
- New friends

Fun

- Hobbies
- Interests
- Activities & events
- Clubs

Medical

- Doctors
- Psychologists
- Counselors

Work

- Boss/Supervisor
- Co-Workers
- Customers

Other

- Emotional
- Safety
- Legal
- Anyone else?